

Subject: Social Studies, Authentic Cultural Experiences, and English Language ArtsGrades: K – 6

Author Yewande Daniel-Ayoade reads her latest book, The Little Regent. She shares with students more about the Yoruba (West African) royalty culture and her writing journey.

Learning Outcomes

- Students will learn about the cultures of diverse communities.
- Students will understand the role of leaders in communities.

Activities

Watch the full program with Yewande Daniel-Ayoade

Length: 25 minutescalgarylibrary.ca/little-regent-programStorytime Reading of The Little Regent with the AuthorLength: 9 minutescalgarylibrary.ca/little-regent-readingDiscussion Questions

“Those who will rule must first learn to serve.”

What do you think this means?

Why did Abioye go around the village to watch and listen to the people who lived there?

Why did the villagers want Abioye to be their leader, even though she was only eight years old?

What are some important qualities that make a good leader?

Yoruba Culture Show and Tell

Length: 3 minutes

calgarylibrary.ca/yoruba

Show and Tell on Yoruba Culture with author Yewande Daniel-Ayoade

Draw what you saw in this box.	Connections This reminds me of... This made me feel... This made me think about...
Discoveries I learned that... This was used to...	Wonders I wonder if... What if... I was puzzled by... I wish...

If you enjoyed The Little Regent, check out these book read-alikes:

PLACE

HOLD

calgarylibrary.ca/lupita

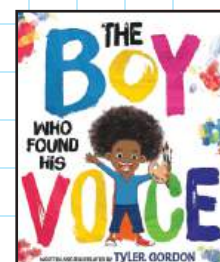

PLACE

HOLD

calgarylibrary.ca/havrelock

PLACE

HOLD

calgarylibrary.ca/gordon